1. O dear Mar - y, re - ceive with pleas - ure All the
2. Though we call you our Queen and La - dy, Yet we
3. We are poor and wretch - ed sin - ners, Grown so 4. Rus - tling for - ests, foam - ing riv - ers Seem to gifts your chil - dren bring you glad - ly. Our love you tru - ly as our Moth - er. We look ug - ly in sin's bond - age. Of - fer your hon - or your sweet name, O Mar - y! Your hearts, thoughts, words and good ac - tions, Our tears of sor - row for our to you in our needs, O Mar - y, And kneel hum - bly to give you hand to lift and re - vive us To new life in vir - tue and God's name is held in great es - teem, To each wound - ed heart it brings swift fail - ings. Please ac - cept our cross - es and our long - ings, Which we hon - or. As a Queen wield your scep - ter o'er us, But as grace. May we al - ways feel your lov - ing gui - dance Lead - ing heal - ing. In the whole wide world, in eve - ry na - tion, Young and of - fer you with ea - ger lovi - ng hearts. Please ac - cept our cross - es and our Moth - er look on us with pit - y. As a Queen wield your scep - ter us to heav'n-ly bliss with you, our Queen. May we al - ways feel your lov - ing old re - vere your name, O Mar - y! In the whole wide world, in eve - ry long - ings, Which we of - fer you with lovi - ng hearts. o'er us, But as Moth - er look on us with pit - y. gui - dance Lead - ing us to heav'n-ly bliss with you, na - tion, Young and old re - vere your name, O Mar - y!
