Earth and heaven are one in Beth-leh-em, Choirs of an-gels tell the mys-tr'y

O-gień krze-pnie, blask ciemnie-je, Ma gra-ni-ce Nie-skoń-cho - ny;
Ra-diance dim-ming, night is grow-ing, Na-ked lies the King of glo-ry,

Wzgar-dzo-ny o - kry-ty chwa - łą, Śmier-tel - ny Król nad wie - ka - mi:
Pow - er, here, em - bra-ces meek - ness; Word, now, finds in flesh com-plet-ness:

A Sło-wo cia - łem się sta - ło i miesz-ka - ło mię-dzy na - mi.
God en - throned in man-ger low - ly, Christ has made this dwell-ing ho - ly

2. Leaving riches, finding treasure, * Jesus scorns not our station.
 What has charmed the Lord, Creator. * Love surpasses limitation.
 Come to share our joys and trials, * In our sin he tasted guile.
*Yet our God did save us boldly,
 Christ, has made this dwelling holy.*
3. Poverty and destitution, * Thatched a roof above our Godhead.
 Catle, shepherds of low distinction, * Greeted him upon a strawbed,
 Paupers, welcomed Him with Sages, * Knelt before the King of ages;
*Monarchs bowed and herders sturdy,
 Christ, has made this dwelling holy.*
4. Raise your hand, O Infant Savior. * Shield all people from affliction,
 Bless and shower us with favor. * Hear this song, grant our petition:
 Peace on earth and to the city, * Bread of Life, sustain the needy.
*Stay with us and with the lonely,
 Christ, has made this dwelling holy.*
