From hea - ven He came down and laid a - yet a stran - ger, He might give to us a glo - rious crown.

2. Love without height, depth or limit, love beyond all knowing;
Love which is in truth the Godhead, in us reaping, sowing;
Love sent down to the earth,
Jesus in human birth,
Now inspire us, now inflame us,
In His name now come and claim us,
Take from us all sadness; give us mirth.
3. Songs of praise and of thanksgiving, pray'rs of deep adoration.
Come from hearts filled with devotion, from each tribe and nation.
Lord, become the living bread,
Grant the promise that You said
Taking bread and taking wine;
Making them Yourself divine;
Number us with those whom You have fed.
